

KLOVE radio serves the Surprise community in many ways. Their broadcasting provides hope and encouragement for families and couples across the valley. KLOVE keeps us informed of pertinent events and news developments that allows us to improve our citizenship and remain active in local affairs.